'Prometheus' Unbound: A DASER Special

If you're a fan of the 2012 sci-fi flick "Prometheus" (with Michael Fassbender, above), you'll geek out over this live event, in which a panel of experts humorously examines the depiction of science in that film and others. Admission is free but pre-registration is required. National Academy of Sciences Building, 2101 Constitution Ave. NW; Thu., 6-9 p.m., free; 202-334-2000, daserthirst.eventbrite.com. (Foggy Bottom)
